This is My Library
A personal tour in print and pictures

The purpose of this guide is to help pre-teach what the structure and routine of a library experience will be like. With this guide, individuals will gain a visual familiarity of their own library so that they can prepare and feel comfortable during their visits.

This resource was developed using a template provided by Libraries and Autism: We’re Connected (www.librariesandautism.org).

There are tables and computers to use in different parts of the library. There are many shelves with books.
There is an information desk.

The librarians at this desk can help me find the things I’m looking for and answer my questions.
There are games at the information desk.

I can use the games when I’m visiting my library. It’s okay to choose what I want to use without asking.
The children’s area is at the front of my library.

The furniture in the children’s area may be in different places if I visit when there is storytime or another program.

It is for small children to sit on.
The children’s area has a lot of books I can borrow.

I can use the special seats, lap pad, headphones and fidgets during my visit to the library.

It's okay to bring and wear sunglasses inside if the lights are too bright.
The children’s area has a play piece with parts that move.

It’s important to share, take turns, and use a quiet voice when I am in the library.
There are iPads in the children’s area with stories and games.

The librarians ask me to sign up at the desk if I want to use an iPad.
I can use a computer to find things in the library and if they have the book, music or movie I want.

These computers have blue signs on top.
I can use other computers to get on the Internet.

These computers have purple and yellow signs on top. I need my library card and password to use the Internet computers. If I forget them, the librarians can help me.
This is the librarian who does storytimes at my library.

Her name is Nina.

She does other programs too, and helps people in the library. Sometimes she needs to be somewhere else and I will see a different librarian.
Storytimes, crafts and other programs are in the children’s area of my library.

When there is a program, the furniture may be moved and the library might be noisy.
The bathrooms and drinking fountains are by the children’s area and information desk.
These are library cards.

I can get my own library card. Then I can check out books, music and movies. I can also use an Internet computer.
The front desk is where I can check out books, movies and music.

This is where I can get a library card if I don’t have one yet.
At this station, I can check things out by myself.

I need my library card and my password to use this checkout station.
These are the gates I walk through when I leave the library.
I use the book return slots outside or inside my library to return what I borrowed.
I’ll come back to my library to return the things I borrowed. I will find new things to take home!
