Getting to Know Muslim Communities: Integration vs. Isolation or Assimilation

Join Mr. Jawad Khan, Muslim Educational Trust board member and Oregon Islamic Academy teacher, and weigh the differences between isolation, assimilation and positive integration of the Muslim community as a minority group in the United States along with addressing which of the three the Muslim Educational Trust tries to accomplish. All of this is interpreted through the lens of what civic responsibility and engagement mean from an Islamic perspective. Made possible by The National Endowment for the Humanities Fund of The Library Foundation. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5123.

Saturday, February 3, 3-4 pm

Botanical Drawing on Walnut Paper

Create a miniature botanical drawing using colored pencils on walnut ink stained paper. This simple technique produces stunning effects making your artwork resemble a botanical illustration from an old manuscript. We will be drawing from observation, so please bring a small rose hip, acorn, maple samsara or a small plant or a seed pod. You will learn simple colored pencil techniques for blending and layering colors and how to achieve form by balancing light and dark tones. All artistic levels are welcome. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5123.

Sunday, February 4, 2-4 pm
