Martin Luther King Jr.: The Things You Might Not Know

Each third Monday in January, the nation pauses to remember the life and legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. Dr. Bill Thierfelder explores King's life as well as over a dozen different facts that you may not have known about this iconic figure that help fill in the picture we have of this complex human being. Here's a chance to delve a little deeper into the man and his legacy, and to see why his story is still so meaningful and relevant to our own lives today. Made possible by The National Endowment for the Humanities Fund of The Library Foundation. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5123.

Saturday, January 20, 3-4:30 pm

AshCrest.NET: Emergency Preparation Training

Emergency preparation training will help people understand the risks posed to our neighborhoods by earthquakes and other weather-related incidents. It will provide information from respected sources on the inevitability of a major earthquake along the Oregon/Washington coast, a clear list of items to begin accumulating, and resources to access to assist in preparation and general suggestions. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5123.
