February 2021

We're here to support your family through home learning.

Talking with kids about disabilities

Kids are naturally curious about the world around them. They notice differences in people and it’s important to talk with them about what they see and feel.

Let’s talk

IEPs, IFSPs, and 504 plans

Learn more about how special education works and where to get help

Black History Month

Celebrate Black Heroes with these books

Books We Love

Librarian Keli shares Focused about 12-year-old Clea who is diagnosed with ADHD

Spanish Beginning Readers Collection
Get moving with kids of all abilities

Movement can be vital for our physical and mental health, but not all of us move in the same ways. We’ve pulled together some resources for kids (and adults) of all abilities.

Let’s move

How to prepare for ACT/SATs

Preparing for the SAT or ACT can be very stressful, so the library is here to help!

Let’s prep

We reorganized our collection of Spanish leveled readers for children learning to read

Stories with Friends
Join us for a virtual after-school program for grades K-2 where we’ll talk about books and share stories

Caregiver Moment
Make a Self-Care Zine with Malaka Gharib

Contact us
Tell us your ideas!