Access E-books with Your Chromebook and Library Connect

Go to the library website:
www.multcolib.org
2. Click on: "E-books and more."

3. Click on: "your desktop."

E-books and more

Try these apps and services to borrow digital library materials like e-books, audiobooks, magazines, music and movies. You can also access this content directly through the library catalog.

Effective March 19, 2020, you can:

- Get a library card online for instant access.
- Use digital content even if you were previously unable to due to late fines.
- Borrow up to 50 items at a time from OverDrive.
- Stream up to 15 items per month from Hoopla.
- Stream up to 10 items per month from Kanopy.

Also, Macmillan Publishers has ended its e-book embargo and the library is again purchasing Macmillan titles.

We're here to help if you need it.

E-books and audiobooks

Easy browsing and reading. Access OverDrive from your desktop.

Get started and get help with this service.
4. Click on: "Already have a card? Sign in."

No library card? No problem.

It just takes a few seconds to sign up using your mobile number and start borrowing free digital titles.

Why do you need my mobile number?

Sign up for an instant digital card

Already have a card? Sign in

5. Your Library Connect number is the same as your library card number.

Type your Library Connect number here.

Type your birthdate: MMDDYYYY as your default password.
You did it! You now have access to thousands of e-books and audiobooks. You can check out up to 50 e-books and place up to 20 books on hold.

Click on: "My account" on the upper right hand side to access books you've borrowed.

Click: "Help" on the upper right hand side to learn more about borrowing e-books.

Please contact the library if you have questions: multcolib.org/contact