

Teen Summer Reading Art Contest

Are you an artist in grades 6-12? Want thousands of people to see your artwork?

Enter your design for the 2022 Multnomah County Library Teen Summer Reading Art Contest.

The theme is “Read Beyond the Beaten Path.” A panel of library staff and artists will select a winner from the entries.

- The winning design will appear on the cover of all teen gameboards. The winning artist will be awarded a $100 prepaid gift card.
- More entries will be selected to produce a “Read Beyond the Beaten Path” coloring book that will be given to Summer Reading participants.
- The library will share the winner and all selected designs on social media.

ART SPECIFICATIONS

1. Original artwork only.
2. Content should be appropriate for all ages.
3. Black & white image only.
4. If hand drawn, use black ink, marker, pen or hard pencil.
5. If digitally drawn, submit as black & white EPS or high resolution (300 dpi) PNG, JPG or TIF.

NOTE: Final artwork will be printed at a maximum of 6” x 4.” You may use the box above to submit your artwork. You don’t have to use the entire box, but your artwork must fit inside it.
