Tuesday, February 27, 3:30-4:30 pm

FOR ADULTS

If You Can Boil Water, You Can Brew Kombucha!

Kombucha is an ancient form of fermented tea and cane sugar that has probiotic benefits for your digestive system. You can buy it from the store or, even better, you can make your own! Brew one gallon for less than one bottle of the store-bought kombucha! Maxwell Bliss of Treehouse Kombucha will show you simple steps to brewing and flavoring your own kombucha. Starter cultures, tea bags and other supplies are provided. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5123.

Saturday, February 10, 3-4 pm

Sellwood-Moreland Crafting Circle

Join fellow crafty companions for knitting, crocheting, fabric crafting and paper crafting. Create and converse together. All ages, abilities and projects welcome.

Monday, February 12, 6:30-7:30 pm

And Still We Rise: Harriet and Sojourner

As we deal with ongoing bigotry, prejudice and racial divides in our nation, the personal stories of Harriet Tubman and Sojourner Truth inspire us to tap into our "better selves." Tubman, known as the "Black Moses" of the Underground Railroad, dedicated her life to creating safe passage for people escaping slavery. Truth worked to abolish slavery and promote equal rights for women. This presentation delves into the lives and impact of Tubman and Truth, and the need to embrace their stories in our troubled times. Made possible by The National Endowment for the Humanities Fund of The Library Foundation. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5123.

Tuesday, February 13, 6:30-7:45 pm

Nature's Medicine Cabinet for Your Home: Essential Oils

Meet Yiwen, an experienced yoga teacher and wellness instructor, who will introduce you to the world of essential oils.
